The Diner Dash series is a chain of video games where the player sets up and operates a diner. It was the first game to have a mascot, which is a monster of the Chinese origin called Lucky the Cat. While all the games had similar gameplay, they were distinguished by the number of customers, items, and the number of screens. Every game had between ten and fifteen screens. The first game was Diner Dash, released in 2003. It received a sequel, and in 2006 a third game was released under the title Diner Dash 2. The latter game has been enhanced in many ways. This is what makes Diner Dash very popular, as it is a very interesting and exciting game with a very wide appeal. The series was extended with the Diner Dash BOOM!, published in 2012, and Diner Dash 2: Hometown Hero in 2014. Diner Dash is one of the most successful video games of all time. Not only is it available in many different platforms, it has also made a lot of money. It has sold over 15 million copies.
